Varanasi attractions

Varanasi is a city in the northern Indian state of Uttar Pradesh dating to the 11th century B.C. Regarded as the spiritual capital of India, the city draws Hindu pilgrims who bathe in the Ganges River's sacred waters. Along the city's winding streets, there are some 2,000 temples, including Kashi Vishwanath, the "Golden Temple" dedicated to the Hindu God Shiva.

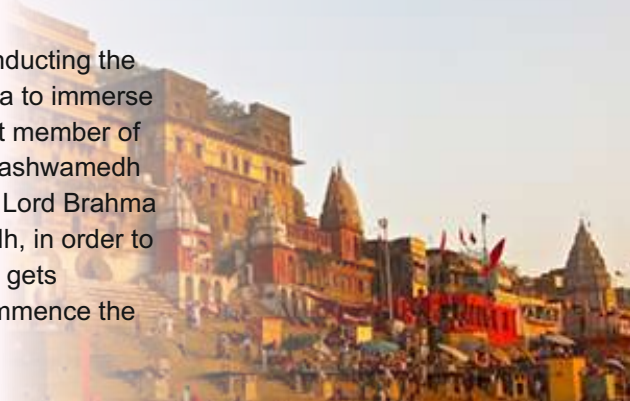

Kashi Vishwanath Temple

One of the oldest, richest, and holiest shrines of India is located in the sacred city of Varanasi and is known as Shri Kashi Vishwanath Temple. Named Kashi, due to the ancient name of Varanasi, the glorious temple commemorates the mighty Lord Shiva and is a part of the 12 Jyotirlingas. Thousands of devotees travel from miles away to witness its soothing spiritual ambiance and seek blessings from their God. Sun glistens on the towering spires and domes made out of pure gold.

Dasaswamedh Ghat

Dashashwamedh Ghat is known for conducting the liveliest aartis along the holy river Ganga to immerse the visitors into divine bliss. A prominent member of the tourist attractions in Varanasi, Dashashwamedh Ghat, got its name due to the legend of Lord Brahma sacrificing 10 horses, or das Ashwamedh, in order to perform a yajna. Every sunset, the ghat gets illuminated by the light of diyas lit to commence the sacred rituals.

Sarnath

Popular by names like Isipatana and Mrigadava, Sarnath is a distinguished pilgrimage site for Buddhists all over the world. Believed to be the first place Gautum Buddha went after gaining enlightenment to preach his teachings on Dharma, is this small, quiet, peaceful town. With many stupas built amidst lush green gardens, this city is famous for being the site of India's national emblem, the Ashoka pillar. Distance from Varanasi to Sarnath is 9.5 KMs
